

SUMMARTÓNAR

F A R O E I S L A N D S

FESTIVAL

OF CLASSICAL AND CONTEMPORARY MUSIC

June 10th – August 24th 2014

Welcome to SUMMARTÓNAR 2014

This year we celebrate the 23rd Summartónar festival

Felagið Føroysk Tónaskøld (Association of Faroese Composers) organizes the annual Summartónar festival all over the Faroe Islands. With its focus on composition, the Summartónar festival is a continuous, vital dynamo in the development of Faroese music.

The 2014 festival programme reflects its role as a platform for new works by Faroese composers, many of them first performances. In the past few years, Summartónar has also presented improvised music, as well as contemporary folk music.

Contents

Price: 34 DKK

"If these musicians, about whom the following story is told, had concentrated on their daily work, instead of constantly reaching out for the sky, they would probably have done much better in this the tiniest of all known worlds. But that was not the case. They were, each in their own way, possessed, like all real musicians are by nature."

Quote: From the novel «The Lost Musicians» by William Heinesen

BIOGRAPHIES

ALDA MAGNA. The group comprises four musicians who all live in the Faroe Islands. The compositions Alda Magna perform are atmospheric wanderings into abstract soundscapes with references to historical and contemporary music.

ALDUBÁRAN. In 1995 seven young Faroese musicians formed an ensemble to perform and promote Faroese music. Today Aldubáran has 14 members. Aldubáran has commissioned and premiered a vast number of works by Faroese and foreign composers. Andras, Johan and Páll have played numerous concerts over the last 6 years as Aldubáran Brass Trio and have performed in London, Copenhagen and the Faroe Islands. They are planning to record a brass trio CD during 2014/15 with music by Faroese composers.

ALVI JOENSEN grew up in the musically rich town of Gøta, where he had his first guitar lessons with Magnus Jacobsen. Later, he took a 3-year music-education in the capital city, Tórshavn, where Ólavur Jacobsen was his guitar teacher. Right after that he applied to the conservatory in Malmö in Sweden, where last year he got his Bachelor-degree, and now is doing his Masters.

TRIO ANGELIKA, ÓLAVUR, DANIEL. Angelika Nielsen (violin) has premiered several new compositions by Faroese composers as a classical soloist. She also tours world-wide with folk/world/jazz bands Yggdrasil, Kvonn, Dánjal and Norland Wind. Ólavur Jacobsen (guitar) is co-founder of the Faroese chamber ensemble Aldubáran, and divides his time between teaching, performing, touring and promoting Faroese music. Daniel Rye (clarinet) is a frequent visitor to the Faroes from the UK where he is a member of the Orchestra of Welsh National Opera.

ANNA HÜDEPOHL was born and raised in Northern

Benjamin Petersen

Germany. She studied classical accordion at the Royal Academy of Music in Aarhus, Denmark. Angelika Nielsen (viola/violin) and Anna Hüdepohl draw from the repertoire of the Baroque and Romantic periods as well as on contemporary music.

Benjamin has written, recorded, performed, released and produced several records and is at this early stage already an established member of the musical elite on the Faroe Islands.

BIRGITTE SCHNAKENBURG is a Danish pianist who has lived and worked in the Faroe Islands since 2005. She attained a master's degree and a pedagogical degree with Professor Arne Skjold Rasmussen at The Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen, subsequently studying with Professor Tatjana Nikolajewa. Birgitte performs many recitals every year and has given concerts as a soloist, accompanist and chamber musician in several European countries as well as the USA.

DÁVUR JUUL MAGNUSSEN is the Principal Trombonist of the Royal Scottish National Orchestra. Working as a deckhand onboard Norðlýsið most summers also means that he is no stranger to the cave concerts, and Klæmintsgjógv is, in fact, his favourite concert venue in the whole world.

DUO HARPVERK was formed in 2007 by harpist Katie Buckley and percussionist Frank Aarnink. The duo's intention is to perform new music for harp and percussion. From the start they have commissioned and performed pieces from composers in the Nordic countries and all over the world. Harpverk performs regularly in Iceland and have toured outside of Iceland extensively. ERNST SONNUM DALSGARÐ's exciting programme with quartet will bring you great instrumental music and opera, love songs and Broadway songs.

The first edition of the FIMM, Faroe Islands Musical Meeting, is a happening taking place in Tórshavn from 18th to 24th August 2014. The FIMM was born after an idea of the Estonian violinist Miina Järvi and the Italian orchestra conductor Federico Scoconi Morresi, and will be mainly dedicated to young musicians from the Nordic countries, by the intention to enlivening the Faroese music life and stimulating an exchange of different experiences between those countries and young musicians from Italy and Estonia. The 7-days event will consist in a intensive week of master classes and workshops, culminating with two chamber music concerts and an orchestral production in which all the participants will be playing together. FIMM is in cooperation with Nordic Cultural Point, Summartónar, Lihula Muusikapäevad (Estonia) and the Orchestra Sinfonica Giovanile del Levante (Italy).

FROÐI HANSEN is a Faroese singer/songwriter. He has released 3 albums of his own works over the past 4 years. The two latest albums are with his band, Frodi & the Pink Slips. His lyrics are mainly in English.

FROSTFELT aka LÍGGJAS OLSEN is from Tórshavn. In his home city he gained his first musical experience with the band Deja Vu, amongst others. Líggjas's songs,

Alvi Joensen

Andras Olsen

Anna Katrin Egilstrøð

Norðan

Angelika Nielsen

tell of the everyday and the timeless – watching TV and falling in love, for instance.

GUDRIÐ HANSDÓTTIR is a Faroese singer/songwriter. She has released 4 albums over the last 5 years with her own compositions. Her lyrics are in English as well as Faroese.

HAVNAR STRING QUARTET was formed in May 2013. The members are Sámal Petersen (violin), Jona Jacobsen (violin), Angelika Nielsen (viola) and Tóri Restorff Jacobsen (cello). All work as music teachers in The Faroe Islands as well as playing in The Faroese Symphony Orchestra. This is the first time they play as a string quartet at Summartónar. Their repertoire ranges from classical to contemporary music. At Summartónar Havnar String Quartet will give the premiere of a new quartet by Kristian Blak. Other composers will be Kári Bæk, Atli Petersen and Edvard Grieg.

HEDIN ZISKA DAVIDSEN is a rock guitarist with other interests such as metal and jazz music. As the bandleader of Tjant he composes all the material and has released 3 albums. Heðin tours widely with his own band and with bands such as Yggdrasil and Marius Ziska.

HERLUF LÜTZEN & AGNAR LAMHAUGE. The guitar player Herluf Lützen has been playing jazz and rock music for many years. Agnar Lamhauge plays the double bass and the electric bass in this group. He is also a member of the Faroese Symphony Orchestra. Agnar is known as a member of the legendary folk group Enekk. Herluf and Agnar will be playing their own compositions.

HOLGAR is a singer/songwriter from the Faroe Islands. His successful CD “Ongan veg” was released in 2010, followed in 2013 by “Kanska tú svav”. holgar is a member of the band Villmenn with whom he has released 3 CDs. holgar is also a member of the band Tinganest. His music is best described as folk/pop, and he has his own fingerpicking guitar style.

KENNETH JONES & BIRGITTE SCHNAKEN-BURG are both presently based in and are employed at the Faroese School of Music. They started to work and perform regularly together in 2008. Prior to this they had worked together with the brass students from the music school. Over the course of the last three years they have been lucky enough to perform many concerts throughout the Faroe Islands including several concerts at The Nordic House. They have performed twice in Denmark giving concert recitals as well as having played in London. In 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 they performed at the Summartónar music festival in which they played newly commissioned works by Kristian Blak & Atli Petersen. In 2011 they released their first CD “Tiðin Rennur”.

KRISTIAN BLAK is involved in a wide range of musical activities. He composes for international classical ensembles, performs locally and tours internationally as a musician and band leader with jazz, folk and world music groups.

KVONN is group of musicians from the Faroe Islands that plays traditional and contemporary folk music from Scandinavia. Kvonn's repertoire includes music composed by the band members, as well as traditional tunes.

Contemporary jazz musician, MAGNUS JOHANNESSEN is best known for his lyrical playing and melodic perspective. In addition to Nordic sound, Magnus has drawn much inspiration from jazz icons Bill Evans and Kenny Wheeler, Lyle May's soundscapes and the minimalism of Arvo Pärt. Magnus has managed to combine these sounds and forge a personal music signature through his own harmonic instinct and lyrical playing.

MALENE THASTUM studied with Amalie Malling at The Royal Danish Conservatory, and further studies in Finland, Wales and Det Fynske Musikkonservatorium, where she had her debut concert as a soloist in 2003. In 2004 she released a CD on Classico with music by Debussy, Poulenc and Messiaen. Malene has performed as soloist, chamber musician and accompanist at numerous concerts, and is also an engaged teacher and has directed various large and smaller artistic projects.

MARIUS ZISKA has grown and matured into a true original voice. Marius Ziska was born and raised in Søldarfjørður – one of the small towns of a few hundred souls so characteristic of the Faroes. Through his career, Marius has been in several bands and has always been considered a brilliant songwriter.

MATTIAS KAPNAS (b. 1991) is a Faroese pianist. He has performed as soloist, chamber musician and with bands inside the Faroese acid, noise, space, jazz environment, most notably with the band Bendar Spónir. Mattias is currently a student of Amalie Mallings at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen.

MONIKA STAUSS JOENSEN & BIRGITTE SCHNAZBURG are both presently based in the Faroe Islands and are employed at the Faroese School of Music. They started to work and perform regularly together in 2008. Over the course of the last few years they have been lucky enough to perform many concerts throughout the Faroe Islands including several concerts at The Nordic House. In 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2013 they performed at the Summartónar music festival in which they played newly commissioned works by Leif Hansen, Kristian Blak, Atli K. Petersen and Pauli í Sandagerði. In 2009 they released their first CD "Classical musicpearls", with their second CD following in 2012. Monika and Birgitte performed in Arizona in January 2013.

NEW JUNGLE ORCHESTRA was formed in 1980 by Pierre Dørge, one of the most prolific and wide-ranging figures on the Danish scene today. It was named after the legendary growling "jungle" sound of the early Duke Ellington Orchestra. Dørge has been interested in modern jazz from as far back as the beginning of his career in 1960. Through the years, however, he has also displayed an unremitting curiosity about other cultures and genres. Accordingly, elements from European, Asian, African and Afro-American music traditions have been assembled by Dørge into a most original synthesis.

NORDAN – Celtic harp & Nordic fiddle. Faroese violinist Angelika Nielsen and German harpist Thomas Loeffke combine in their duo programme their own compositions – a hybrid of Celtic and Nordic music – with traditional music from the Faroe Islands and Ireland. Both perform internationally with Norland Wind and various other projects. Nordan's CD will be out on Tutl this summer. www.nordan.fo.

QUARTER TO THREE is a new band from Klaksvík. They play their own songs with influences from pop and jazz.

The members of the Icelandic jazz-trio SKARKALI have played together on various occasions after meeting each other at F.Í.H. School of Music. The trio mostly plays compositions by Ingi Bjarni, the piano player, but with the elegant bass playing of Valdimar and the energetic drumming of Óskar, the music is brought to another level! Although the Icelandic word skarkali means loud noises, this does not necessarily describe their music.

THOMAS LOEFKE learnt his trade in Dublin from Ireland's leading harpists. He has been touring, composing and recording (8 CDs) since 1984. When not a soloist, he plays with Norland Wind (feat. Angelika Nielsen), Acoustic Eidolon or Máire Breatnach. www.ThomasLoefke.eu

TÓRA VESTERGAARD is a Faroese singer, who graduated in the summer of 2013 from The Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen with a masters in Music Teaching. She is currently taking a second masters in Classical Choir Conducting at The Academy of Music in Southern Denmark. Tóra has performed at several concerts, where she has sung from a classical, pop and folk repertoire, and at this year's festival she will be performing classical and contemporary music together with pianist Mattias Kapnas.

YGGDRASIL is a Nordic ensemble based in the Faroe Islands. Formed in 1981 by composer & pianist Kristian Blak, Yggdrasil has a repertoire that encompasses a wide range of genres, from free jazz to classical. The ballet music "The Four Towers" is one of the classic Yggdrasil works. Composed in 1985, it was first staged in in Tórshavn in 1989. The music and ballet is inspired by the poem "Barnetegning" ("Child's Drawing") by William Heinesen. New choreography 2014 by Kristina Sørensen Ougaard.

FAROESE COMPOSERS AT SUMMARTÓNAR 2014

ATLI K. PETERSEN (b. 1963). Atli's works have frequently been inspired by the Faroese musical heritage. Atli is active as a composer, trombone and tuba player, conductor and teacher.

ANDRAS OLSEN (b. 1978) studied trombone in Aarhus, London and Copenhagen. He has a great interest in contemporary music and has worked with some of the leading ensemble s and composers at home and abroad. Today Andras works in the Danish Lifeguard band. He is also a member of Athelas Sinfonietta Copenhagen, Scenatet (DK) and Aldubáran (FO). The inspiration for Andras' music comes from his close collaboration with ensembles and musicians. He likes to experiment with the possibilities of the instrument and the musicians, which sometimes leads to "acting".

HEBIN ZISKA DAVIDSEN (b. 1977) is a rock guitarist with other interests such as composing metal and jazz music. In recent years he has become increasingly interested in cross-over forms and composing electro-acoustic music.

JENS L. THOMSEN (1980) is known for his unique and innovative approach to film and theatre music as well as for producing albums. He is also the founder of the award-winning musical project ORKA.

KÁRI BÆK (b. 1950). Kári's interest in composition sprang from his work as a conductor and his earliest works were arrangements of Faroese tunes, but he later started composing both instrumental and choir music.

KIM KRISTENSEN (b. 1956) composes music in a wide spectrum of genres such as a variety of jazz lineups, classical ensembles, film and theatre. He also specializes in electronic music.

KRISTIAN BLAK (b. 1947). His diverse musical background is reflected in the music he composes, often uniting ethnic music with new compositional techniques. He has a central role in the musical life of the Faroe Islands and is the artistic director of the Summartónar festival.

LEIF HANSEN (b. 1976) was born on the island of Nólsoy. He is a choral leader, composer and organist.

Contemporary jazz musician, MAGNUS JOHANNESSEN (b. 1967) is best known for his lyrical playing and melodic perspective. However in recent years, he has emerged as a composer and orchestrator.

The music of TRÓNDUR BOGASON (b. 1976) has a distinctive and ghostlike character – filled with temperament and primal force. His music contains a dramaturgy in which spatial and visual aspects often play a dominant role.

PÁLL SÓLSTEIN (b. 1964) studied french horn in Copenhagen and works at the Royal Danish Opera. He has composed chamber works, and songs to texts by Faroese poets.

PAULI Í SANDAGERÐI (b. 1955) has been one of the pioneers in Faroese musical composition. His earliest interest was in playing the piano but has developed over time a great interest in working with choirs and composing. Today he is best known as a composer.
