SUMMARTÓNAR 2015

This year we celebrate the 24rd Summartónar festival

Felagið Føroysk Tónaskøld (Association of Faroese Composers) organizes the annual Summartónar festival all over the Faroe Islands. With its focus on composition, the Summartónar festival is a continuous, vital dynamo in the development of Faroese music. The 2014 festival programme reflects its role as a platform for new works by Faroese composers, many of them first performances. In the past few years, Summartónar has also presented improvised music, as well as contemporary folk music.

- Total Solar Eclipse

Mini-sheet issued in connection with the Total Solar Eclipse on 20 March 2015.

Date of issue: 11.03.2015
 Design & engraving: Martin Mörck, Sweden

Price: 36 DKK

On 20 March 2015 a Total Solar Eclipse covered the Faroe Islands in darkness at 9.41 am.

Seeing a total solar eclipse is perhaps one of the most spectacular astronomical and natural phenomena that you will ever see.

TUESDAYS & SUNDAYS, JUNE–AUGUST

SPECIAL EVENTS:

CONCERTO GROTTO

During the last several years, Birgir Enni, skipper of the vessel NORÐLÝSIÐ, and Kristian Blak have arranged trips with musicians and audiences to caves, into which – weather permitting – one can enter in smaller boats, utilizing the natural sounds and unique acoustics of the caves as integral parts of the music.

These concerts have taken place in collaboration with Summartónar, which brings visiting musicians in addition to local performers into these unique Faroese concert halls.

See programme for these concerts on Tuesdays from June 9th to August 18th

- and Sundays from June 28th to August 16th

NORÐLÝSIÐ, Schooner, departs from Vágsbotnur, near Bryggjubakka 14, Tórshavn at 1 p.m.

– Returns to Tórshavn approx 6 p.m. depending on wind and current.

Tickets at TUTL shop, Niels Finsens gøta 9c, 100 Tórshavn, shop@tutl.com, and at www.tutl.com

BIOGRAPHIES

ALDA MAGNA. The group comprises four musicians who all live in the Faroe Islands. The compositions Alda Magna perform are atmospheric wanderings into abstract soundscapes with references to historical and contemporary music.

2015 is ALDUBÁRAN's 20th anniversary year. Aldubáran has played a big part in the musical life of the Faroe Islands – commissioning new works from Faroese composers, playing concerts in schools, and recording CDs, e.g. with well known folksinger, Hanus G. Johansen. At the 3 concerts on the 27th June, which will include two premieres, Aldubáran will showcase a wide range of the group's work over the last two decades. Find out more at www.aldubaran.com.

ANDERS HJULER has been a performance artist since 1968. He has worked with musicians and dancers in various settings. Recent collaborations include Live Paint combinations in concerts, e.g. Harmonic Port in the Faroe Islands and working on a H. C. Andersen fairy tale in Tallinn and Riga with Blak – Carlsen and dancers. He has exhibited extensively. www.andershjuler.dk.

ANDREAS RESTORFF studied cello at the Royal Danish Academy, Copenhagen. Since then he has been a regular cellist in the Faroese Symphony Orchestra and has recently also played pop music with artists such as Teitur and Eivør.

ANGELIKA NIELSEN has premiered several new compositions by Faroese composers as a classical soloist. She also tours worldwide with folk/world/jazz bands Yggdrasil, Kvonn, Dánjal and Norland Wind.

ANNA KATRIN ØSSURSDÓTTIR EGILSTRØÐ (vocal, electronics) Inspired by raw nature and big city life, Anna Katrin sculpts her voice in an electronic landscape of soundscapes and beats. With songs written in Faroese and English. Normally Anna Katrin performs with vocals and electronics but for the Concerto Grotto concert it will be her pure, naked voice that meets with the cave and the ocean's roar. Anna Katrin is also known as the singer in the band Valravn.

ARNOLD LUDVIG SEXTET Arnold Ludvig is an international award-winning bass player, composer and arranger, from the Faroe Islands. He studied jazz in Iceland and Canada and has also lived in Copenhagen where he assembled a powerful team of musicians for his debut jazz album, Voyages. The compositions are an autobiographical tale of the inspiration Arnold drew from his many travels.

BENGT FORSBERG is a Swedish concert pianist most famous for his numerous collaborations with the mezzo-soprano Anne Sofie von Otter. He participated in her project to record songs written in the concentration camp of Terezín. At Summartónar 2015 he will play two solo piano recitals as well as piano quintet concerts with Mira Kvartetten.

When you listen to BENJAMIN's music, it is like being taken to a place you didn't know existed. At the same time, it's like you have always been there. Home. At the tender age of 6 he started playing the guitar and a few years later he discovered Rock 'n' Roll and since then he has never turned back. Benjamin's music is as simple as it is diverse, as raw as it is pretty, as beautiful as it is scarred and as unsettling as it is sweet.

BIEDERMEIER DUO. Violinist Nikolaos Kapnas and guitarist Bo Isholm will perform music by Molino, Wallace, Guiliani and premiere a commissioned work by Kristian Blak.

BLUE GRASS BRASS BAND plays compositions for brass instruments and drum kit by drummer Rógvi á Rógvu.

BRANDUR ENNIS musical career started early; he sang on two albums in 1998 and 2000. He released his debut album Waiting in the Moonlight in 2002, when he was 12 years old. Enni gained popularity in the Faroe Islands, Denmark and in Iceland, and later he became a well-known name in Sweden and other countries.

BUDAM is a singer, songwriter, theatre composer and performs in a mixture of different genres that can be best described as Theatrical Indie Rock. Budam represents the perfect marriage of theatrical brilliance and musical versatility. With a deep and seductive voice, Budam's performance is forceful and untamed.

DÁVUR JUUL MAGNUSSEN is the Principal Trombonist of the Royal Scottish National Orchestra. Working as a deckhand onboard Norðlýsið most summers also means that he is no stranger to the cave concerts, and DRÍFA HANSEN is a Faroese opera singer currently based in Berlin. At Summartónar she presents classical music as well as new compositions by Faroese composers.

EDVARD NYHOLM DEBESS moved to Denmark to study music. This was the period where his song-writing started. Steadily his interest in jazz increased, as well as the urge to play double bass. He also kept his interest in classical music, which had begun during his early years at the piano. Today Edvard Nyholm Debess is a sought-after bass player, both in Scandinavia and in the Faroe Islands.

Emerging as one of Scotland's most distinctive singer-songwriters, FIONA MACKENZIE has been applauded by critics across the globe for her unique blend of traditional and contemporary song in Scottish Gaelic and English. BRIAN Ó HEADHRA is an established and highly acclaimed musician & singer based in Inverness, Scotland.

GUÐRIÐ HANSDÓTTIR is a Faroese Musician/Artist. Her sound is a mixture of pop/folk and electronic music. Her main instruments are vocals, guitar and flute. She has released 4 solo albums and is also known as one half of the Faroese Electro Duo, Byrta. Apart from being a solo artist and member of Byrta, she is also a member of the Female Vocal Quintet, KATA. The Quintet performs modern interpretations of traditional Faroese songs.

HEDIN ZISKA DAVIDSEN is a rock guitarist with other interests such as metal and jazz music. As the bandleader of Tjant he composes all the material and has released 3 albums. Heðin tours widely with his own band and with bands such as Yggdrasil and Marius Ziska.

HEIDRUN PETERSEN and JÓHANNES ANDREASEN: Heiðrun is one of the young talented musicians from the Faroe Islands. In addition to her solo work she is also leader of the Nordic String Quartet, which was invited to give an extensive concert tour in China last spring. For decades Jóhannes has been one of the most prolific Faroese musicians. He studied in Vienna and London, and now divides his time between teaching and performing. One of his current projects is a cyclic performance of all the Mozart piano sonatas.

HERLUF LÜTZEN & AGNAR LAMHAUGE The guitarist Herluf Lützen has been playing jazz and rock music for many years. Agnar Lamhauge plays the double bass and the electric bass in this group. He is also a member of the Faroese Symphony Orchestra and is known as a member of the legendary folk group Enekk. Herluf and Agnar will be playing their own compositions.

HOLGAR is a singer/songwriter from the Faroe Islands. His successful CD "Ongan veg" was released in 2010, followed in 2013 by "Kanska tú svav". holgar is a member of the band Villmenn with whom he has released 3 CDs as well as the band Tinganest. His music is best described as folk/pop, and he has his own fingerpicking guitar style.

HIMMERLAND is a group of five travelling musicians: from Denmark – and from Poland and Ghana. They compose their own music and infuse it with all the different traditions that run in their blood. Travelling to Europe, Russia, Canada, South America, Australia and New Zealand, they represent a Denmark where people from around the world can meet, live together and all contribute to a sweetly simmering cultural melting pot. www.himmerland.it.

HØGNI REISTRUP The remoteness and isolation of this tiny North Atlantic country has always been a central theme in Høgni's music. Høgni thus sings in the local tongue of Faroese evoking comparisons to Icelandic acts such as Múm, Ásgeir and Sigur Rós.

JÁKUP ELI JOENSEN is a gifted Faroese singer/songwriter. In 2011 he released the album, Kom við mer,

JAMES D. HICKS from Fredericksburg, Virginia, has performed throughout the USA, Australia and Europe. He has recorded five collections of organ music on the American Pro Organo label. At Summantónar, James will present two organ concerts devoted to new music by Faroese composers as well as works by other contemporary Nordic musicians. He will also take part in a Grotto Concert in which he will improvise bagpipe duets with noted Faroese composer Kristian Blak.

JANUS Á HÚSAGARÐI grew up in Tórshavn. He plays guitar, mandolin and sings. In 2014 Janus began writing his own songs, lyrics and music. His concert on 1st July is a release concert of his new album. Janus' music is inspired by Irish folk/rock.

JOŽE KOTAR & LUCA FERRINI Jože Kotar became principal clarinetist of the RTV Slovenia Symphony Orchestra in 2007 after serving in that role at the Slovenian Philharmonic Orchestra for twelve years.

LUCA FERRINI, pianist, harpsichordist and organist from Trieste (Italy) has performed throughout Europe, Asia and Central America. He has given more than 150 premieres, recorded 20 CDs and has recorded for a variety of European broadcasting companies.

KAMARTRIOIN (The Faroese-European-Chamber-Trio) Monika Stauss Joensen (violin), Kenneth Jones (trumpet), Birgitte Schnakenburg (piano). The group performs as a trio as well as a violin-piano duo and trumpet-piano duo. They have played many concerts in the Faroe Islands as well as overseas concert tours to USA, England and Denmark. To date this group has released two CD recordings for Violin & Piano and two CD recordings for Trumpet & Piano.

KÁTIR KALLAR Herluf Lützen (guitar), Magnus Johannesen (piano), Arnold Ludvig (bass), Rógva á Rógvu (drums) – a new quartet with leading Faroese jazz musicians. They will be playing jazz interpretations of well-known Faroese music.

The vocal group KORLUREN from Fredrikstad, Norway specializes in folk tunes and traditional songs. They have been travelling around the world for 20 years, visiting South Africa in 2014 and New York in 2012. During Summartónar they will focus on folk music and psalms written by composers from the Faroe Islands and Norway.

KRISTIAN BLAK is involved in a wide range of musical activities. He composes for international classical ensembles, performs locally and tours internationally as a musician and bandleader with jazz, folk and world music groups.

KVONN is group of musicians from the Faroe Islands that plays traditional and contemporary folk music from Scandinavia. Kvonn's repertoire includes music composed by the band members, as well as traditional tunes.

LÍV NÆS is a Faroese folk musician, best known for her debut album Tú skalt eiga morgindagin (2009). Since then there have been several other releases. Her last album was Keldufar (2012), which has music by Lív Næs and Tróndur Enni and poems written by her grandfather back in 1946.

Contemporary jazz musician, MAGNUS JOHANNESSEN is best known for his lyrical playing and melodic perspective. In addition to Nordic sound, Magnus has drawn much inspiration from jazz icons Bill Evans and Kenny Wheeler, Lyle May's soundscapes and the minimalism of Arvo Pärt, and has managed to forge a personal music signature through his own harmonic instinct and lyrical playing.

MARE DUO Annika Luckebergfeld Hinsche and Fabian Hinsche are two of Germany's most successful young musicians and have won more than 20 prizes in international competitions across Europe. More than two dozen new compositions have been composed for and are dedicated to Mare Duo, including works by Faroese composers to be premiered at Summartónar 2015. Annika and Fabian have recorded several CDs as soloists and in various ensembles. www.mareduo.com.

MARIUS ZISKA has grown and matured into a true original voice. He was born and raised in Sældarfjørður – one of the small towns of a few hundred souls so characteristic of the Faroes. During his career Marius has been in several bands and has always been considered a brilliant songwriter.

MATTIAS KAPNAS is a Faroese pianist. He has performed as soloist, chamber musician and with bands inside the Faroese acid, noise, space, jazz environment, most notably with the band Bendar Spónir. Mattias is currently a student of Amalie Malling at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen.

MIRA KVARTETTEN is one of the most important Danish chamber music ensembles, with a repertoire of classical quartets as well as newly written music. Based in Jutland, they perform all over Denmark and tour internationally. www.mirakvartetten.dk MONKEYRAT Songwriter, Anna Iachino sings and raps over Arnold Ludvig's bass playing and music. Together, they deliver multi-genre music rooted mainly in Funk. In 2010, MonkeyRat released their debut album, Fuck The Jante Law. In 2012 they released their Sunshine CD, to great reviews from DK, UK, & FO.

NORDAN Celtic harp & Nordic fiddle. Faroese violinist Angelika Nielsen and German harpist Thomas Loeffke combine in their duo programme their own compositions – a hybrid of Celtic and Nordic music – with traditional music from the Faroe Islands and Ireland. Both perform internationally with Norland Wind and various other groups. p. www.nordan.fo. Norðan's CD is out on Tutl.

ÓLAVUR JAKOBSEN Largely self-taught as a classical guitarist, he commenced his studies at the Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen with guitarist Ingolf Olsen. Ólavur continued his studies in Paris with French guitarist Roland Dyens and masterclasses with Sir Julian Bream and David Russell. Ólavur is co-founder of the Faroese chamber ensemble Aldubáran, and divides his time between teaching, performing, touring and promoting Faroese music.

PANAYIOTIS DEMOPOULOS The pianist Panos Demopoulos specializes in premiering new works. His interests are in microtonal music, free notation and improvisation.

PIOTR DAMASIEWICZ, born in Wrocław, is a composer, trumpeter, and multi-instrumentalist. His music reaches towards free jazz ideas, via European classical music, all the way to European improvised music, sound art, electro-acoustic improvisation and experimental music.

SÁMAL PETERSEN studied in Odense, where he gained his Diploma for teaching and playing in 1993. After further study in Vienna he moved back to the Faroe Islands in 1995. He works as a music teacher in the Suzuki method. Sámal is currently Concertmaster of The Faroese Symphony Orchestra as well as co-founder of the Faroese chamber music group, Aldubáran.

STANLEY SAMUELSEN & JENS JEFSEN Stanley Samuelson (born in Fuglafjørður, Faroe Islands, now based in Copenhagen) is a composer, guitarist, singer and songwriter. He has recorded 6 solo albums and has performed in all the Nordic and Baltic countries as well as the USA. Jens Jefsen is a leading Danish jazz bass player. Over the years he has played with Dexter Gordon, Clark Terry and Ben Webster, and made 8 solo albums. He currently plays with Pólv Dissing and Benny Andersen.

SVABONIO was formed to play new arrangements of music from the notebook of J.C. Svabo (1746–1824). Concerts will feature 18th-century dance tunes and other fragments that might have washed ashore over the years. Svabonio has a flexible line-up, including British musicians Daniel Rye (clarinet) and Fiona Parker (horn) with their Faroese friends, Angelika Nielsen (violin) and Ólavur Jakobsen (guitar), and the occasional special guest.

THOMAS LOEFKE learnt his trade in Dublin from Ireland's leading harpists. He has been touring, composing and recording (8 CDs) since 1984. When not a soloist, he plays with Norland Wind, Acoustic Eidolon and Máire Breatnach. www.ThomasLoefke.eu

TÓRA VESTERGAARD is a Faroese singer, who graduated in the summer of 2013 from The Royal Danish Academy of Music in Copenhagen. She is currently studying Classical Choir Conducting at The Academy of Music in Southern Denmark. Tóra's concerts have included classical, pop and folk repertoire, and at this year's festival she will be performing classical and contemporary music together with pianist Mattias Kapnas.

The members of TRIO ESTERA met as students at The Royal Danish Academy of Music all wishing to explore the repertoire for flute, cello, and piano. Coming from different parts of Europe – flautist Mia Káradóttir from the Faroe Islands, cellist Estera Kwiecien from Poland, and pianist Ida Andersson is from the Åland Islands – they bring different approaches towards the music. They work actively to expand the repertoire for this combination. For Summartónar they will premiere two pieces written for the ensemble.

For the past several years UNI R. DEBESS has been establishing himself as "Mr Blues" in the Faroe Islands. He has even succeeded in writing several hits alongside his various blues band constellations such as GoGo Blues, Debess Blues Station and Crawling Blue.

YGGDRASIL is a Nordic ensemble based in the Faroe Islands. Formed in 1981 by composer & pianist Kristian Blak, Yggdrasil has a repertoire that encompasses a wide range of genres, from free jazz to classical.
